Strategic theme:  Rich, interactive learning experience

Subject Title:  Reimaging Blended Learning: Not a Trivial Pursuit

Contact Details:  Susan x 2157 susan.blackley@curtin.edu.au  Rachel x 2163 Rachel.sheffield@curtin.edu.au

Brief Description:

This session describes a proof-of-concept project that targets the first professional studies unit in a Primary Bachelor of Education program. The content delivery has been based upon blending 21st century learning skills, acknowledgement of NetGen preferences, and is underpinned by andragogical rather than pedagogical practices. Canvas, a 21st century learning management system, is used as a platform to support student engagement, reflection, and collaboration.

Benefits:

The approach to content delivery that will be showcased is applicable to units in any course or program, and supports robust student engagement.
