Festival of Learning Showcase

Facilitator: Mr Andrew Cotterell, Training Manager, Curtin Leadership, Community Life

Strategic theme: Leading in innovative education

Subject Title: Self Awareness Leadership Workshop

Contact: Andrew x1051, Andrew.T.Cotterell@curtin.edu.au

Brief Description:

This workshop is a module in the Curtin Leader’s program.

In this session:

We will explore a range of strategies for increasing your self-awareness including values clarification, reflective practices, negative and positive self-talk and giving and receiving feedback on our own and others strengths and weaknesses.

Guest speaker Andrea Gibbs will talk about the importance of self-awareness from her personal experiences. Andrea is a comedian and actress, the co-creator of Barefaced Stories and a core comedian in The Big HOO-HAA!

Benefits: Come along to see large class interactive teaching in a tiered space, action + collaborative learning strategies and game elements. Guest speakers and reflection will add to the learning experience. If you attend make sure you are prepared to get involved in the activities!

Time/Day: Wednesday 18 March, 2015; 12:00 - 1:45pm

Duration: 1hour 45mins

No. of Sessions: One

Venue: Tim Winton LT 213.104

Special Requirements: No special requirements are required