Festival of Learning Showcase Session

Facilitator: Mrs Amanda Lambros, Unit Coordinator, School of Occupational Therapy and Social Work

Strategic theme: Rich, interactive learning experience

Subject Title: Teaching Megaclasses: Techniques for streamlining teaching whilst simultaneously enhancing the student experience

Contact: Amanda Lambros x 3651

Brief Description:

With 3,000 first-year students throughout the year, engagement, retention and collaboration are key components to success. Are you interested in learning how to employ different techniques to engage students? Rather than just coming to see what’s available, we are going to take the time to have you create from the numerous techniques available. Working in various groups, you will have the opportunity to login and create then test from the student and lecturer perspectives.

Benefits:

Hands-on experience to learn how to create and engage with students, regardless if there are 100-2000 students. You will leave with handouts and a baseline of information and resources to grow from there...get ready to get hands on 😊

Time/Day: Tuesday 17 March, 2:00 – 2:30pm

Duration: 30min

No. of Sessions: One

Venue: Building 400:Room 249

Special Requirements: No special requirements needed
